

OFFICIAL REPORT.

Charleston Exposition Commission Chairman Reports to Gov. Otero.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS.

Santa Fe, N. M., June 5, 1902.
Hon. Miguel A. Otero, Governor of New Mexico, Santa Fe, N. M.

Sir: I have the honor to submit the following report as to the work of the commission appointed by you last fall to arrange for and install an exhibit from New Mexico at the South Carolina, Interstate and West Indian Exposition, held at Charleston, S. C., from December 4, 1901, to May 27, 1902.

This commission as appointed by you consisted of the following named persons: William H. Pope and Hugh N. Wilcox, of Santa Fe; Arthur H. Harlow, of Silver City; R. W. D. Bryan, of Albuquerque; and Ava E. Pace, of Roswell. The commission organized by the selection of William H. Pope as chairman, Arthur H. Harlow as vice chairman, and R. W. D. Bryan as secretary and treasurer. Subsequently the commission was increased by the addition of J. W. Benham, manager of the Hyde Exploring Expedition, having large interests in San Juan county and in Bernalillo county, with its eastern headquarters at Fortieth street and sixth avenue, New York city.

The problem which confronted the commission at the very outset was the lack of funds, there being no appropriation provided by the legislature for the purposes of this commission. However, upon conference held with the Hyde Exploring Expedition it was found that that corporation was willing to undertake an exhibit on behalf of the territory of New Mexico should the commission provide for its use the sum of $25,000 to be expended in preparing the space allotted by the exposition authorities to the territory of New Mexico. R. W. D. Bryan, the secretary and treasurer of the commission, energetically took up the matter of raising this amount by private subscription with the result that he was entirely successful, the full amount being contributed by the public-spirited people of Albuquerque. These funds placed at the disposal of Mr. Benham, the manager of the Hyde Exploring Expedition, assured the exhibit. Supplementing the splendid work done by Mr. Bryan in securing this money, the other members of the commission secured a number of articles for the exhibit. Mr. Harlow's work in utilizing the interest of the people of the southwestern portion of the territory, and Mr. Bryan's work among interest in the central portion of the territory, being especially worth of mention. In addition, E. D. Williams, of Las Cruces, aided in securing an exhibit from the Mesilla valley, the Bureau of Immigration aided by the preparation of literature for distribution at the exposition, and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad furnished free transportation for the exhibit over its lines. The chairman of the commission made a trip to New York during the month of December, but for the purpose of arranging details with the Hyde Exploring Expedition, and a few days later met the representatives of that company at Charleston and finally arranged with the exposition authorities for the space desired. This latter was secured in one of the best buildings on the ground, just across from the Florida exhibit.

The exhibit was installed the early part of 1902 and previous to President Roosevelt's visit to the exposition. It attracted a great deal of attention, both on account of its novelty in the handsome array of Navajo blankets, Indian pottery and other Indian articles which it contained, and also on account of its very creditable representation of the resources of New Mexico. The impression made by the exhibit upon the public and upon the exposition authorities is shown in the fact that there were awarded to the territory of New Mexico on account of this exhibit three gold medals, thirteen bronze medals and one honorable mention. The list is as follows:

John Decker, of Elgin, N. M., silver, gold medal.
R. F. Gosh, Silver City, silver, gold medal.
New Mexico Commission—Albuquerque, natural collection, gold medal.
Carl Abrahamson, Roswell, copper, gold medal.
W. Cotton, Coles, N. M., silver, gold medal.
Bureau of Mountain Mining Company, Las Cruces, lead, bronze medal.
Jefferson Lead Mining & Milling Company, Roswell, lead and silver, bronze medal.
Kinsdale & Brown, Fairview, gold and silver, bronze medal.
Johnston, McIntosh, Pecos, silver, gold medal and runner, bronze medal.
Mineral Point Zinc Company, Roswell, S. M., silver, gold medal.
Mason, Mining Company, Roswell, lead, bronze medal.
Niles, Roswell, Silver City, copper, bronze medal.
Santa Rita Copper Mining Company, Grant county, native copper, bronze medal.
P. A. Swan, Cuba, Montezuma, gold, silver and copper, bronze medal.
Thompson & Co., Silver City, copper, silver, bronze medal.
Torrado Mining Company, Las Cruces, copper and silver, bronze medal.
Hyde Exploring Expedition, Zuni pottery, bronze medal.
Parker, Silver City, turquoise, honorable mention.

Upon the conclusion of the Charleston exposition, on May 31, the New Mexico commission tendered this exhibit to the Louisiana Purchase commission as the nucleus of the New Mexico exhibit to be made at St. Louis in 1904, but the latter commission did not feel willing to accept it upon the terms proposed, which were the expenses of repacking and the transportation back to St. Louis. The Charleston commission being without funds to arrange this latter and being requested by the Charleston museum to second oldest and one of the most complete of the museums in the United States to donate to that institution this exhibit for permanent use, adopted the latter course. The result will be that this exhibit having served its purpose in connection with the exposition for the past few months, will constitute a permanent advertisement of the resources of New Mexico in a section of the United States where these resources are but little known.

On behalf of the members of the commission I desire to thank you for the honor conferred upon us in our designation as commissioners, and also in this manner to acknowledge the assistance which has been rendered us by the people of the territory, the Hyde Exploring Expedition and its efficient manager J. W. Benham, in providing for this exhibit. Very respectfully,
WM. H. POPE, Chairman.

HIGH TREASON.

Charged Against Colonel Lynch, Who Fought with the Boers.

London, June 11.—Arthur Lynch, who fought with the Boers in South Africa, and who in November last was elected to represent Galway in the house of commons, was arrested this morning on his arrival at New Haven from Dieppe, France. Lynch, who was accompanied by his wife, was brought to London and afterwards taken to Bow.

Subsequently Lynch was arraigned in Bow street police court on the charge of high treason. He was remanded until Saturday, June 14, and is apparently unconcerned. He did not apply for bail and was taken to a cell. Lieutenant Colonel Philip Nolan, nationalist, applied this afternoon for the release of Colonel Lynch on bail, but the magistrate said he had no power to grant the request.

MONEY WAS PAID.

President of the Exporters' Association Before the Committee.

Washington, June 11.—F. B. Thurber, president of the Exporters' association, a witness who has been wanted by the committee on Cuban relations, was before the committee today. Senator Teller produced a copy of a voucher for $2,880, showing that sum had been paid by the military government of Cuba by authority of Governor Wood to the United States Exporters' association, of which Mr. Thurber is president. Mr. Thurber acknowledged he had received the amount and said it was one of three payments he received from the same source. The receipt is dated April 2, 1902, and states it was for "advancing a reduction in the duties on Cuban products with a reciprocal reduction on United States products going into Cuba."

The witness said he thought $20,000 worth of literature had been circulated. He said he received a contribution of $2,500 from Havemeyer of the sugar trust when he solicited that gentleman for a substantial subscription.

STILL IN COMMITTEE.

Constitutional Amendment for Electing Senators by the People.

Washington, June 11.—In the senate today a motion to discharge the committee on privileges and elections from further consideration of the resolution for amending the constitution by providing for the election of senators by a direct vote of the people, was defeated by 41 to 37.

When the filibuster canal bill was taken up Mr. Fairbanks, of Indiana, declared himself in favor of the Panama canal route. His predictions and opinions, founded upon fragmentary and unsatisfactory information, he said, had been entirely in favor of the Nicaragua route. But it was not to be given to the opinion of our own impartial commission, men of experience and capacity he declared, we must discard the Nicaragua and select the Panama route.

PENNYPACKER NOMINATED.

Pennsylvania Convention was Controlled Absolutely by Senator Quay.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 11.—The nomination of Judge Samuel Pennypacker, of Philadelphia, for governor was practically assured when the republican state convention assembled today. The following of Attorney General Elkin will hold it through. The convention met at 10:30 and Senator Quay was unanimously chosen state chairman.

The platform adopted pledges support to the renomination of President Roosevelt, reaffirms loyalty to protective tariff, approves the proceedings of the attorney general "to check the growth of unlawful combinations," and endorses reciprocity with Cuba.

Pennypacker was nominated for governor on the first ballot. The vote was Pennypacker 298, and Elkin 1.

CLOSED ON SUNDAY.

St. Louis Fair Directors Comply With the Requirements.

St. Louis, June 11.—President Francis has been authorized by the exposition directors to sign a contract with Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, in which the world's fair management pledges itself not to operate the fair on Sunday any time. The action was taken as the result of a letter from Secretary Shaw, requesting the company to comply with the section of the federal act appropriating $5,000,000, which states that as a condition of payment to the company to execute the contract.

BREWERY STRIKE.

Brewers of Chicago Will Have Trouble Tomorrow.

Chicago, June 11.—Angered by the refusal of officers of the United States Brewing company—more commonly known as the trust—to reinstate thirty brewery drivers helpers who went on strike Monday, the other unions connected with the firm are preparing to call a general strike tomorrow morning. The men are thoroughly organized and the leaders claim not a barrel of beer can be moved from the breweries involved without their consent after the strike call is issued. The helpers struck Monday to get higher wages.

Stops the Cough and Works Off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price, 25 cents.

In the current number of the American Engineer, George R. Henderson, superintendent of motive power of the Santa Fe, has an article on the topic, "Overloading of Locomotives." Edward Grafstrom, mechanical engineer of the same, also writes about "Locomotive Traction Increases," and R. P. C. Sanderson, formerly assistant superintendent of machinery of the Santa Fe, but now superintendent of motive power for the Seaboard Air Line, discusses "Representation by Tonnage in the M. C. B. Association." Mr. Sanderson also leads the program for the annual meeting of master car builders at Saratoga, N. Y., beginning June 18.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

Oshkosh is Entertaining the Catholic Total Abstinence Union.

Oshkosh, Wis., June 12.—Oshkosh is entertaining the annual state convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union. The sessions began this afternoon at the Atherton hotel and were preceded by the celebration of high mass at St. Peter's church. The participants included between forty and fifty priests who came from all parts of the state. The officers of the union are: President, Rev. W. J. Rice, Stevens Point; secretary, Rev. F. J. Fiss, Berlin; treasurer, Rev. James O'Malley, of Oshkosh. Their annual reports showed the organization to have been unusually active during the past year in spreading total abstinence among the lay people of the state.

ALBUQUERQUE MILLS.

More Proof That the American Lumber Company Means Business.

C. M. Donley, secretary of the Crescent door and sash factory, located at Wichita, Kas., arrived in the city on Tuesday. Mr. Donley also represents one of the largest banking institutions of Kansas and is touring the southwest inspecting the timber resources with a view to investment.

Mr. Donley speaks well of the American Lumber company. He says that the company is composed of a number of experienced lumber men who are conscientious and sincere and will do everything they advertise to do. Mr. Donley thinks that it will be a couple of years before the company will have their mills in full operation. At present they are busy solving the problem of getting the material to the railroad. A log flume is out of the question because of the scarcity of water. A short railroad will probably solve the difficulty.

As to quality, Mr. Donley says the soft pine of the Mitchell tract is a very good pine, but not quite equal to the superior pine of Michigan. It is more like the article which comes from the forests of Oregon.

Mr. Donley left last night for San Francisco, and from there will go to Oregon, where the Crescent door and sash factory has a large mill.

CORONATION DOG SHOW.

Several Dogs are Entered From the Queen's Kennels.

London, June 12.—Among the anti-coronation functions and exhibitions not the least interesting is the open air show of the Ladies' Kennel association, which opened today in the Botanic Gardens at Regent's Park. The association enjoys the distinction of being the only women's club of any description with which the queen is at all connected. She takes as much interest in its welfare today as she did when Princess of Wales and several high bred dogs from the former well known Sandringham kennels are among the exhibits. The show is rather international in character, as several American ladies who have come over for the coronation have placed their canine pets on exhibition. In order to do so they were obliged to obtain exemption from the rule which requires dogs from foreign countries to remain in quarantine for six months before landing in England.

GEORGE SPECK DEAD.

An El Paso Editor Struck Dead By Heart Disease.

George Speck, city editor of the Monday Independent, well known about town as an old newspaper man, died suddenly this morning at his home, 708 S. South Oregon street, of heart disease. His death occurred without the slightest premonition or warning. Mrs. Speck was awakened at half past three to find him in a convulsive spasm. She arose to find some liniment with which to relieve his pain. But her efforts were without avail, for in a few minutes he was dead.

For seven years Mr. Speck has suffered from partial paralysis. In spite of this he was in apparently good health until a week or so ago, but twice within the last six days has suffered from pains about the heart. These Mrs. Speck had relieved by local application. But the relief was temporary, and Mr. Speck, whose father and mother had died of heart trouble, said that he was sure that this would be the cause of his death, too.

George Speck was born in Carlisle, Pa., forty-three years ago, and came to El Paso when about 23 years old. He owned and ran the old Senate saloon, located where the ranch saloon now is. Later, through his two generous loans, he failed, and has since been in the newspaper business, first on the Tribune and later on the Independent, a Monday morning paper, when at paper became merged with the former. He was a versatile, and at times a caustic writer, and constantly hunting for local "hot stuff." His brother, John, in Los Angeles, and another brother, Carlisle, have been notified and on their replies will depend the time of the funeral.

With the thermometer at boiling point the above teams participated in a friendly contest. Spectators were few but bets many, especially on the Reds' side. The linemen fielded well. Frank Romero acted as umpire and gave general satisfaction.
